

ROBERT HENLE'S SECOND YEAR LATIN

During this class we will read through all of Robert Henle's Second Year Latin.

If you do not yet have it, the book is available from Amazon here.

If you prefer a digital copy, simply add it to a google books account here.

You will not need a physical dictionary for this course. Instead, I recommend the free (and fantastic) Whitaker's Words. You will find the site here.

This is an intensive Latin class. We will read the entire Second Year Latin book in one year. This is how the book was designed, hence the title: Second Year Latin. Reading the book in one year, is, however, ambitious. Be ready to work hard.

If you would like an English translation of the book, a simple google search will give you what you are looking for. There are many translations, and they are easy to find. Here is one: <http://classics.mit.edu/Caesar/gallic.html>

Personally, my favorite way to review a book is to listen to it. You can listen to Caesar's Gallic Wars in English for free on Librivox. Simply click the following link: <https://librivox.org/commentaries-on-the-gallic-war-by-caesar-gaius-julius/>

Here is the same book, same readers. It's on YouTube. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bGhOXENjV5o>

From time to time you will miss a class. No worries. To view previous classes, you will need to register as a new user on my site: <http://www.dwanethomas.com/>.

After you register, I will be able to let you into the “course” pages where you will find the recordings. Once you have done this, let me know. It’s a little annoying, but I have to go in and add students manually. If you’d rather follow instructions via video, here you go: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RSvdAZCKb_8

If you get stuck, or if you have questions, there are plenty of ways to contact me:
